

(Photo, from left) Consul General Mario de Leon welcomes the Consul G
Africa, and other dignitaries.

14 June 2012 - The Philippine Consulate General in New York (NY) in cooperation with the Philippine Trade and Investments Center-NY (PTIC), Department of Tourism-NY (PDOT-NY), and the Philippine Center hosted a formal reception on June 11, the eve of the 114th anniversary of the proclamation of Philippine Independence.

The event held at the Philippine Center in New York was attended by 200 guests from the diplomatic and consular corps, business sector, the arts community, tourism sector and members of the Filipino-American Community from the Tri-state area, New England and Pennsylvania.

The New Jersey Chamber Rondalla; "Subli" Performance; Ms. Anna

Walden, Executive Director of the Philippine Consulate General in New York City, with the New Jersey Chamber Rondalla

Samples of Philippine delicacies served at the

The show was an official event of the Philippine Consulate General in New York City, featuring a reception by Philippine Consul General, Romy Picap, kakan

(Left photo) Consul General de Leon delivers his remarks. (Middle photo) Trade and Tourism Secretary Eric Domingo delivers a special message. (Right photo) Consul General and Mrs. De Leon and Tourism Secretary Domingo and Mrs. Libran Cabactulan of the Philippine Mission to the UN.

~~File photo of the Philippine National Day Reception and Press Conference at the United Nations, New York, June 14, 2012.~~

(Left photo) Secretary Domingo with Consul General de Leon; guests participating in the reception. (Right photo) Buffet table during the reception.

~~File photo of the Philippine National Day Reception and Press Conference at the United Nations, New York, June 14, 2012.~~

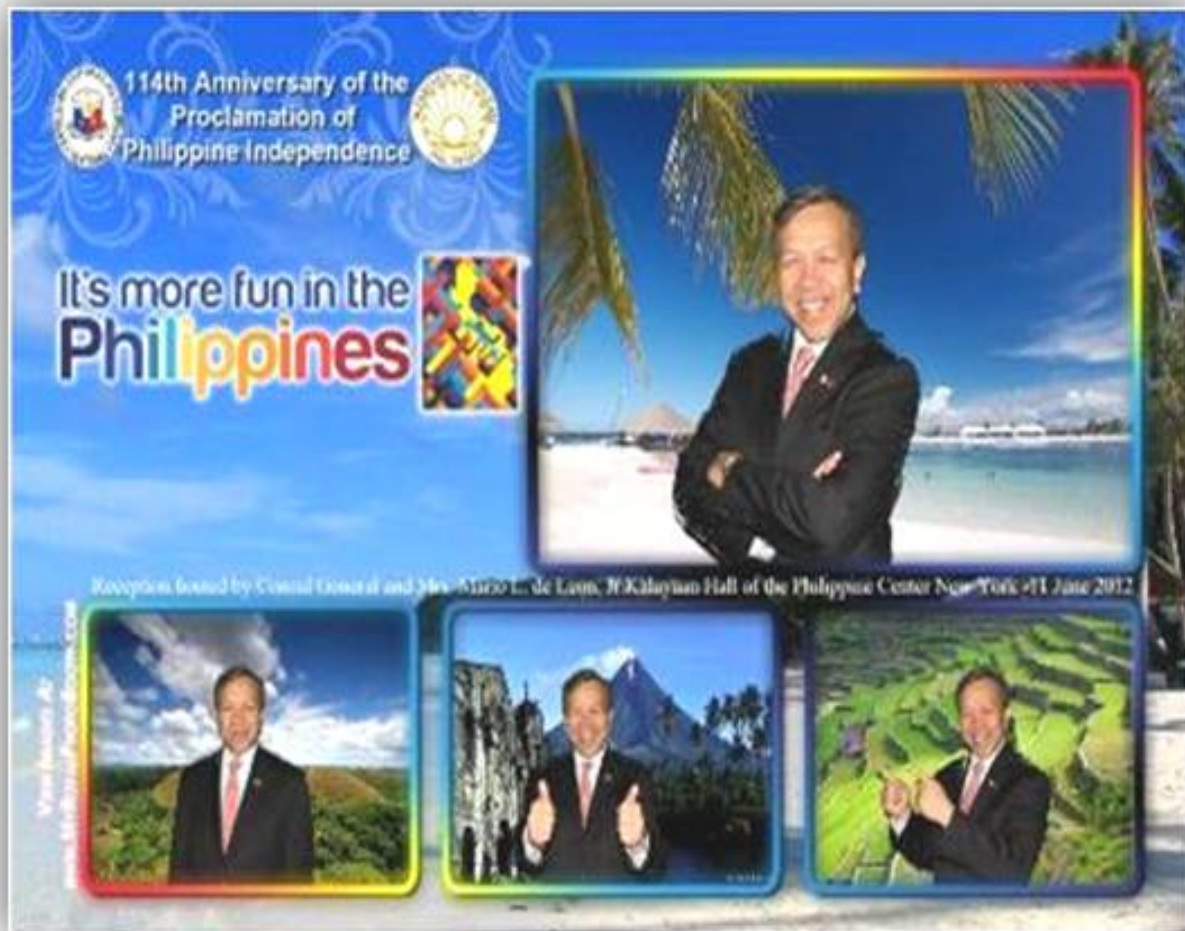

Photo of Secretary Gregory Domingo taken at the "It's More Fun in the Philippines" booth

~~This is a photo of Secretary Gregory Domingo taken at the "It's More Fun in the Philippines" booth during the reception.~~

(Left photo) Duet by Consul General de Leon and Anna Maria Perez de presents a bouquet of roses to Anna Maria. (Right photo) Guests enjoy the per

“Shh!” he whispered to the crowd. “Don’t let the police know!”

The Consul General of the Bahamas poses at the souvenir booth; Filcom guests General and Mrs. De Leon at the photo booth.

“Shh!” he whispered to the crowd. “Don’t let the police know!”