

PHILIPINES CONSULATE GENERAL IN DUBAI MARKS 114TH INDEPENDENCE DAY
The Philippine Consulate General in Dubai, United Arab Emirates, celebrated the 114th Independence Day of the Philippines on Wednesday, June 13, 2012. The celebration was held at the Consulate General and was attended by the Consul General, the Consul, the Consul's wife, the Consul's children, the Consul's staff, and the Consul's family. The Consul General, Mr. [Name], gave the opening remarks and welcomed everyone to the celebration. He expressed his pride in being a Filipino and his commitment to promoting the Philippines in the United Arab Emirates. He also thanked the Consul's staff and family for their support and dedication. The Consul's wife, Mrs. [Name], then gave a speech and shared her own experiences of living in the United Arab Emirates. She expressed her appreciation for the Consul's leadership and the Consul's staff's hard work. The Consul's children, [Name] and [Name], then performed a song and a dance. The Consul's staff then presented a slideshow of the Philippines' history and culture. The Consul's family then presented a video of the Philippines' current state. The Consul General then gave a speech and thanked everyone for their participation in the celebration. He expressed his confidence in the Philippines' future and his commitment to promoting the Philippines in the United Arab Emirates. The Consul's wife, Mrs. [Name], then gave a speech and thanked everyone for their support and dedication. The Consul's children, [Name] and [Name], then performed a song and a dance. The Consul's staff then presented a slideshow of the Philippines' history and culture. The Consul's family then presented a video of the Philippines' current state. The Consul General then gave a speech and thanked everyone for their participation in the celebration. He expressed his confidence in the Philippines' future and his commitment to promoting the Philippines in the United Arab Emirates.