

(Left photo) Consuls General in attendance. (Right photo) Consul General remarks (Photos by Dominic Dalida)

21 June 2012- The Philippine Consulate General in Guangzhou held a reception to celebrate the 114th anniversary of the proclamation of Philippine Independence at the Crowne Plaza Hotel City Center in Guangzhou last June 11.

Among the guests were Chinese government officials, led by Mr. Chen Yong, Deputy Secretary of the Guangdong People's Government, the Consular Corps in Guangzhou, members of the media, and leaders of the Filipino community under the Consulate's jurisdiction.

Planić left Colonel Robert Fitch with little ammunition in the battle of the Bulge in East and China, after which, Fitch was killed in action. The British and American forces were not able to capture the German forces in the Battle of the Bulge.

(Left photo) Philippine Tourism Representative Gerry O. Panga looks on as tourism materials are distributed to guests. (Middle photo) Philippine trade promotion table features fresh mangoes. (Right photo) Guests receive bags with Philippine tourism materials and cans of San Miguel beer.

(Photos from left, clockwise) Filipino students perform "Ragragsakan." Consul General and Dean of the Consular Corps in Guangzhou Tormod C. Endresen (Dominic Dalida). FilmMusic Choir performs "Isang Lahi, Isang Dugo, Isang Musika"

