

Phi Consulate General in Milan Leads Independence Day Events

Monday, 25 June 2012 17:40

---

A concelebrated Independence Day Holy Mass at the Immacolata Concezione San Lorenzo Filipino Chaplaincy, Father John Benna (Italian priest) of Maramba of Immacolata Concezione, Father Ronnie Lacanienta of Bergamo Philippines, and Bro. LA Custodio, a seminarian in Milan.

~~25 June 2012 - The Philippine Consulate General in Milan led a Holy Mass on Independence Day, June 24, 2012, at the Immacolata Concezione San Lorenzo Filipino Chaplaincy. The Holy Mass was concelebrated by Father John Benna (Italian priest) of Maramba of Immacolata Concezione, Father Ronnie Lacanienta of Bergamo Philippines, and Bro. LA Custodio, a seminarian in Milan.~~

Phi Consulate General in Milan Leads Independence Day Events

Monday, 25 June 2012 17:40

Philadelphia Consul General in Milan Leads Independence Day Events
Philadelphia Consul General in Milan, [Name], led a series of events to celebrate the 238th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence on July 4, 1776. The events included a reception at the Consulate General, a lecture by [Name], and a performance by the [Name] Orchestra. The Consul General also met with [Name] and [Name] to discuss the importance of the date and the role of the Consulate General in promoting U.S.-Italy relations.