

20 June 2012 - The Filipino Consulate in Buraidah, Qassim, Saudi Arabia celebrated the 114th anniversary of Philippine Independence Day. The celebration was held at the Consulate and was attended by the Consul General, the Consul, the Consul's wife, the Consul's children, the Consul's staff, and the Consul's friends. The Consul General, Mr. [Name], gave a speech during the celebration, in which he expressed his appreciation for the Filipino community in Saudi Arabia and wished them a happy Independence Day. He also mentioned that the Consul General and his family will be visiting the Philippines in the near future. The Consul General's wife, Mrs. [Name], also gave a speech during the celebration, in which she expressed her appreciation for the Filipino community in Saudi Arabia and wished them a happy Independence Day. She also mentioned that she will be visiting the Philippines in the near future. The Consul's children, [Name] and [Name], also gave speeches during the celebration, in which they expressed their appreciation for the Filipino community in Saudi Arabia and wished them a happy Independence Day. They also mentioned that they will be visiting the Philippines in the near future. The Consul's staff and friends also gave speeches during the celebration, in which they expressed their appreciation for the Filipino community in Saudi Arabia and wished them a happy Independence Day. The celebration was a very successful one and was attended by a large number of people. It was a great opportunity for the Consul General and his family to meet with the Filipino community in Saudi Arabia and to celebrate their Independence Day. The Consul General and his family will be visiting the Philippines in the near future.