

(Photos, from left) Copy of the Bergen County Proclamation; M. Kathleen Donovan
General Mario de Leon

3 July 2012 - The Philippine flag was proudly hoisted for the first time at the Bergen County Administrative Building in New Jersey last June 12.

To mark the 114th anniversary of the proclamation of Philippine Independence, the Bergen County Administration, headed by County Executive Kathleen A. Donovan, honored the Philippines and the Filipino-American Community by holding a flag-raising ceremony at the grounds of the seat of the Bergen County Local Government.

(Photos from left) Mayor Joe Tedeschi of Fairlawn, NJ greets Consul General de Leon Parrado of the Asian American Advisory Committee and other Filipino leaders from B message.

~~the #BergFilipinoConsulGeneralParrado's Visit to Bergen County, NJ~~

(Photos from left) Filipino Community Members at the Flag-raising Ceremony; Mrs N Consul General de Leon poses in front of the Philippine, US and Bergen County flag

~~the BergFilipinoConsulGeneralParrado's Visit to Bergen County, NJ~~