

Team Philippines-Canada headed by Ambassador

13 July 2012 - Riding high on the wave of promising reports on the Philippine economy, the Philippine Embassy in Ottawa kept its economic diplomacy momentum going with a national day reception on July 6 at the Ambassador's official residence.

Members of Parliament (MPs) Joe Daniel (Member, Canada-Philippines Parliamentary Friendship Group) and François Pilon as well as His Worship, Mayor Jim Watson of Ottawa, represented the Canadian government during the occasion.

Ambassador and Mrs. Gatan welcome distinguished guests from the the diplomatic corps
