

13 July 2012 - The Philippine Embassy in Pakistan, led by Ambassador Jesus I. Yabes, and the Filipino community started off the commemoration of the 114th anniversary of the proclamation of Philippine Independence by celebrating a morning mass at the Fatima Church in Islamabad on June 10. The service was co-organized by the Embassy and the Filipino community, with Filipino nuns from the Religious of the Virgin Mary (RVM) Congregation readily assisting.

Embassy officers and staff prepare for the flag raising ceremony to mark the 114th Independence on 10 June 2012 at the Embassy Chancery ground.

~~PHILIPPINE EMBASSY IN PAKISTAN OFFICIALS AND STAFF PREPARE FOR THE FLAG RAISING CEREMONY TO MARK THE 114TH INDEPENDENCE ON 10 JUNE 2012 AT THE EMBASSY CHANCERY GROUND.~~

Ambassador Yabes and Embassy personnel pose for a photo opportunity Philippine Embassy on the occasion of the 114th Anniversary of the Proclamation of Philippine Independence on July 4, 1946-2012.

Keywords: Chronic Pain, Pain Management, Social Learning Theory, Self-Efficacy, Health Beliefs, Health Communication, Health Promotion, Health Behavior, Health Education, Health Training, Health Coaching, Health Communication, Health Promotion, Health Behavior, Health Education, Health Training, Health Coaching

Ambassador Yabes (in barong) was joined by Federal Minister for Capital Development, Mohammad Gondal (center), Heads of ASEAN Missions, Kazakhstan, and the Mission of Afghanistan for the cutting of the cake to symbolize Philippine Independence reception on 12 June 2012.

The night Mr. Richard G. Smith, US Ambassador to Pakistan, was received specially for the occasion by Marriott's only Filipino high ranking diplomat, Consul General, who presented a special show to the occasion.