

Phil Embassy Leads Filipino Community in New Delhi In Independence Day Celebrations

Tuesday, 17 July 2012 14:13

Phi Embassy Leads Filipino Community in New Delhi In Independence Day Celebrations

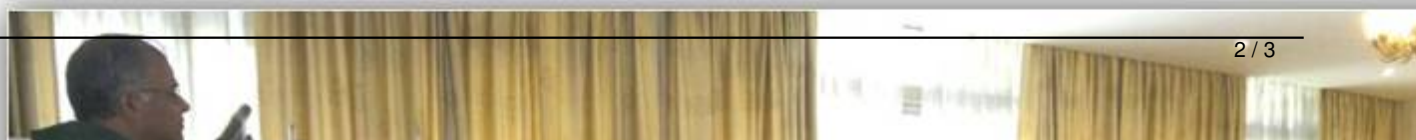

Tuesday, 17 July 2012 14:13

Embassy Chargé d'Affaires Maria Agnes M. Cervantes reads President Benigno S. Aquino III's Independence Day Message.

Members of the Filipino Community in New Delhi joined the Embassy in celebrating the 114th anniversary of the Declaration of Philippine Independence on 12 June 1898.

Phl Embassy Leads Filipino Community in New Delhi In Independence Day Celebrations

Tuesday, 17 July 2012 14:13

17 July 2012 - The Philippine Consulate in New Delhi, India, led the Filipino community in celebrating Independence Day, July 4, 1946, with a series of activities. The celebration began with a flag-raising ceremony at the Consulate, followed by a cultural performance by the Filipino community. The event was attended by Consulate officials, members of the Filipino community, and local Indian officials. The Philippine Consulate in New Delhi is located at 1, Connaught Place, New Delhi, India. For more information, please contact the Consulate at +91 11 2611 1111.