19 March 2013 - The Philippine Embassy in Vienna celebrated the 27th Anniversary of the EDSA People Power Revolution of 1986 with the Filipino community in Vienna on separate occasions.

On February 24, Philippine Ambassador to Austria Lourdes O. Yparraguirre addressed the Filipino community during the Sunday Mass at Pfarre Johann Kapistran officiated by Rev. Fr. Ron Sandoval, SVD.

The message of Ambassador Yparraguirre focused on this year's theme "Pilipinas Natin, Abot Tanaw Na", which speaks of the importance of every Filipino's contribution to be an agent of change and a force for good in the country. The message also speaks of its continuing revolution and the progress that the Filipinos have made in fulfilling the promise of EDSA.
