

Group Picture with Rentokil workers during POLO outreach program on 29 January 2010

4 February 2010- The Philippine Embassy in Brunei reported to the Department of Foreign Affairs that Philippine Overseas Labor Office (POLO) held an Orientation on its programs and services at Rentokil Initial Sdn Bhd Staff House in Kilanas on Friday, 29 January 2010.

The activity was arranged by the said office under Labor Attaché Elizabeth O. Recio, in coordination with Mr. Candido Ranolo, Rentokil Initial Sdn Bhd Supervisor.

The briefing was organized to ensure better understanding of the various services available at the Philippine Embassy, particularly of labour and welfare services, and provide on-site POEA OEC and OWWA/SSS/Pag-ibig membership coverage.

OFW participants listening to Labor Attaché Elizabeth O. Recio during POLO outreach program at RENTOKIL staff house

During the presentation, the following matters were discussed: SSC membership and benefits to which OFWs are entitled; the importance of maintaining accurate records of employment; and the importance of maintaining accurate records of employment.