

(Left photo) ASEAN Secretary-General Le Luong Minh (center) visits the Philippine Embassy booth. The photo are Philippine Ambassador to the Kingdom of Thailand Jocelyn Batoon-Garcia (2nd right), (1st left), Third Secretary Princess Tomas-Tayao (2nd left), and Attaché Pilar Binuya (1st right) (2nd right) with Third Secretary Tomas-Tayao (1st right), Ms. Marianne Montecillo (1st left), Representative and Ms. Binuya at the Philippine booth at the ASEAN Business Forum ASEAN e

19 March 2013 - The Philippine Embassy in Bangkok participated in the ASEAN Business Forum ASEAN Exhibition held last February 27 and 28 at the Plaza Athenee Tower.

The Embassy displayed products such as dried mangoes, pili nuts, rice, coffee, coconut jams, coconut sugar, calamansi marmalade, and champorado at the Philippine booth. Tourism and investment brochures were also given to visitors. Some products of Great Eastern Drug, a subsidiary of major Philippine pharmaceutical company, UNILAB, were also displayed at the Philippine booth.

The Philippine booth was supported by the Philippine Trade and Investment Center (PTIC), and the Office of the Special Agriculture Representative (OSAR). END