

15 March 2013 – Philippine and Mongolian foreign ministry senior officials will meet in Manila on March 19 for the 1st Philippines-Mongolia Policy Consultations.

The Philippine panel will be headed by Department of Foreign Affairs (DFA) Undersecretary for International Economic Relations Laura Del Rosario while Vice Foreign Minister Damba Gankhuyag will head the Mongolian panel.

The Mongolian delegation will call on DFA Secretary Albert F. Del Rosario. They will also meet with Philippine Tourism officials and Filipino businessmen.

The Policy Consultation serves as a venue for the two countries to explore and promote cooperation in various fields, such as trade and investment, tourism, and culture and education. During the policy consultations, the two foreign ministries will also discuss bilateral, regional and multilateral issues of mutual concern. END
