PHILIPPINE EMBASSY, BRUSSELS COMMEMORATES 21ST ANNIVERSARY OF EDSA PEOPLE POWER REVOLUTION

27 February 2007 – Philippine Ambassador to Belgium Cristina Ortega reported to the Department of Foreign Affairs that the Embassy commemorated the 21st anniversary of the EDSA People Power Revolution on 23 February.

Ambassador Ortega delivered a message at a convocation of personnel from the Embassy and attached agencies, enjoining them to always remember the lessons of EDSA revolution.

Philippine Ambassador to Belgium Cristina Ortega leads the Embassy's commemoration of the 21st anniversary of EDSA People Power Revolution on 23 February 2007. A flag ceremony commenced the program.

"We should demonstrate the dignity and grace that we showed during the four-day EDSA revolution to the country where we now live and work," Ambassador Ortega remarked. "We should always remember that we are all in this together regardless of who we are. That at the end of the day and as the EDSA revolution proved, we are strongest when we stand together."

A Filipino breakfast concluded the celebration.

The message was sent to all Filipino organizations in Belgium and Luxembourg. END
